Insurance product information document

AB Lietuvos draudimas Estonian branch

This information document provides an overview of travel insurance. It does not reflect the insurance contract terms and conditions that are based on your insurance interest and requirements. The terms and conditions of the contract can be found in other documents, such as the proposal, policy conditions and the insurance policy.

What is this type of insurance?

Above all, travel insurance covers unexpected and unavoidable medical expenses incurred during travel abroad. The insurance insures a person's health and covers any medical expenses related to the treatment of health damage and injuries sustained in a foreign country. Travel insurance may also include baggage insurance, which insures the personal belongings you take with you, and trip interruption insurance that insures you against expenses related to cancellation and interruption of your trip.

What is insured?

- ✓ This is multi-trip travel insurance. Therefore, you must keep in mind that the cover starts at the beginning of your trip and remains valid for the number of days specified in the contract.
- ✓ Depending on the insurance options chosen when entering into the contract, the insurance covers:
 - ✓ the health of the person specified in the policy. The insurance covers expenses related to unavoidable medical care and any medical examinations and services required to diagnose an illness in a foreign country and the cost of prescription medicines, medical aids and transport related to medical care, incl. the cost of bringing the ill person back to their homeland;
 - ✓ the insured person's clothing and personal effects they bring with them. The insurance indemnifies loss arising from the damage to and theft or destruction of these items. If the insured person's baggage is late, the insurance immediately covers the expenses related to the purchase or rent of basic necessities;
 - ✓ expenses related to trip interruption or cancellation. In the event of trip interruption, the insurance covers additional accommodation and transport costs so that the insured person can continue their trip or return to their home country. In the case of cancellation, the insurance indemnifies the unused travel services and contractual obligations to the travel agency;
 - ✓ claims incurred under liability insurance of a private person during the trip. The insurance covers any damage caused unintentionally to a third party by the insured person or their child;
 - ✓ bodily injuries sustained during the trip as a result of an accident, on the basis of which the person receives lump-sum compensation.
- ✓ A medical care insured event involves the unexpected illness of the insured person during the trip or unforeseeable and life-threatening exacerbation of an illness, but also potentially lethal health damage or bodily injuries sustained during a stay in a foreign country that require unavoidable medical assistance.
- ✓ Baggage insurance usually covers:
 - ✓ theft and robbery;
 - ✓ damage or loss if the insured object was entrusted

What is not insured?

- ✗ The insurance does not cover:
 - ✗ persons whose permanent place of residence is not in the Republic of Estonia;
 - ✗ persons who are engaged in dangerous activities (e.g. competitive sports, dangerous hobbies or paid physical work) during their trip;
 - ✗ plants, foodstuffs, drinks, cigarettes, cash, bank cards, documents, manuscripts, drawings, models, samples of goods and products, securities, information, ammunition, explosives, motor vehicles, musical instruments, tools, antiques, art, objects transported for sale, glasses, sunglasses or data media;
 - ✗ objects that are broken or lost while in the possession of the insured person; and
 - ✗ objects that are fragile, corrosive or leave stains, e.g. wine, glassware or household chemicals.

 - ! the indemnity for flight delays over 12 hours is 150 euros (the insurance covers one insurance event per insurance period).

Where am I insured?

- ✓ The insurance is valid worldwide.

What are my obligations?

- Before entering into an insurance contract, you must provide the insurer with the required data. The data submitted must be complete and correct. Additionally, the insurer expects the client to submit data that is of substantial, recognisable interest to the insurer and has an important effect on the insurance premium without being asked to do so.
- The insurer must be notified of risk situations and changes thereto.
- The policyholder's main obligation is to pay the insurance premium.
- They must also follow the safety requirements specified in the insurance contract, e.g.
 - consider the state of their health, circumstances and the usual rules of conduct during their activities;
 - take reasonable care of their things;
 - pack their things carefully so that they will not break or damage other things in their luggage, considering regular baggage handling;
 - follow the instructions of their doctor, travel agent, the police, etc.; and
 - follow the appropriate recommendations of the state and other bodies, incl. the Health Board's recommendations regarding vaccination.
- The policyholder must immediately notify the insurer of an insured event and follow their instructions.
- A comprehensive list of the policyholder's obligations is given in the policy conditions.

When and how do I pay?

The insurance premium and payment deadline are specified in the policy. The premium is usually paid by bank transfer on the basis of an invoice.

When does the cover start and end?

The cover becomes effective on the commencement date of the insurance period and ends upon its expiry.

The cover for trip cancellation takes effect within 72 hours of entry into force of the contract.

It may also end before the expiry of the insurance period specified in the contract. For instance, the insurer may terminate the contract if the insurance premium is left unpaid.

How do I cancel the contract?

In order to terminate the contract, you must submit a respective application to the insurer. In general, the contract can only be terminated prematurely upon mutual agreement between the policyholder and the insurer.
