

SEB Mastercard World Elite Credit Card Travel Insurance terms and Conditions R400/2018

Valid from 01.10.2018

This is unofficial text. In case of dispute the Estonian wording shall prevail.

The given document forms a part of an insurance contract entered into with the Estonian branch of AB "Lietuvos draudimas" (hereinafter PZU*). In matters unregulated hereunder, the Parties to the insurance contract shall be governed by the Law of Obligations Act and other legislations in force.

1. Principal Terms

- 1.1. Insurer is the Estonian branch of AB "Lietuvos draudimas" (hereinafter PZU*).
- 1.2. Insured Person is the person specified in the policy, who has a valid AS SEB Pank MasterCard World Elite credit card or an additional card to the credit card. Co-insured persons are up to three family members of the Insured Person.
- 1.3. Period of Insurance is the period of time specified in the insurance policy during which the insurance is in effect. The maximum length of one Travel can be 90 days maximum. If the return from a Travel is delayed due to the Insured Event of travel interruption, the validity of the insurance cover is extended one time by maximum 48 hours.
- 1.4. Sum Insured is the maximum amount of money payable by the Insurer during the insurance period. In case of an insurance event the Sum Insured shall be decreased by the indemnities paid out.
- 1.5. Insured Event is a pre-agreed upon event in the occurrence of which the Insurer shall fulfil their obligation emanating from the contract.
- 1.6. Excess is a part of the damages to be indemnified for per every insured event specified in the insurance contract bearable by the Insured Person. The Excess amount is always payable by the Insured Person and the Insurer shall not compensate it. The Excess is withheld last from the damages to be compensated for.
- 1.7. Limit of Indemnity is the maximum amount of money specified in the policy, which the Insurer shall pay out per Insured Event and per Insured Person.
- 1.8. Travel is the temporary stay of an Insured Person outside their state of residence.

2. Validity of Insurance

2.1. Territorial Scope

2.1.1. Insurance shall be valid for travel throughout the world, except the state of residence of the Insured Person. A state of residence means the state where the Insured Person has lived permanently over 183 days during 365 days before the Travel. In reference to the Insured Events of travel interruption specified in Section 8 of the insurance terms and conditions (except Clause 8.2) the Republic of Estonia is regarded as a territorial scope, if the given insurance event has occurred in the Republic of Estonia.

2.2. Validity of Contract

- 2.2.1. The insurance contract shall enter into force as of the payment of insurance premium. The insurance contract shall be in force within the Period of Insurance specified in the policy.
- 2.2.2. The insurance contract shall terminate at 23:59 on the last day of the Period of Insurance.
- 2.2.3. Withdrawal from the insurance contract or early termination is permitted only in the events provided for by the law.
- 2.2.4. Insurance cover and Insurer's liability shall commence at 00:00 on the date specified in the policy but no sooner than the Insured Person has crossed the state border of their state of residence. The aforementioned is not subject to insurance events of travel interruption listed in Section 8 of the insurance terms and conditions (except Clause 8.2).

2.3. The starting point of a Travel is the state border or the border checkpoint through which the Insured Person leaves their state of permanent residence.

2.4. A Travel shall be deemed as completed when the Insured Person crosses the border of the state of their permanent residence upon return.

2.5. Limitations of Validity

- 2.5.1. Insurance shall not cover the damages caused by competitive sport and/or related training.
- 2.5.2. Insurance shall not cover the damages caused by physical paid employment.
- 2.5.3. Insurance cover does not apply to events caused by the following activities: parachute and bungee jumping, aerial sports (incl. gliding, sailplaning, hang-gliding, flying with an ultralight aircraft or aircraft built by an amateur, a hot air balloon, etc.), mountain skiing or snowboarding outside the marked runs, downhill and off-piste skiing, diving below 20 meters, surfing (incl. kitesurf), windsurfing, open sea sailing (no port is reached for more than three consecutive days), waterfall descent, rock climbing and wall climbing, alpinism, mountain hiking above 3000 meters, any kind of motor sports, combat sports or contact sports (e.g. boxing, wrestling, judo, karate, etc.), strength sports (e.g. weightlifting, etc.), ice hockey; hikes or expeditions without professional assistance to the pole, jungle, desert, wilderness or uninhabited area; working at mines, oil platforms and natural gas platforms; working as a sailor, diver, stuntman, security guard, rescue worker and in an occupation or a job at which the Insured Person carries or uses a gun; participation in act of war; being in the Defence Forces; being an observer, rescue worker, medical worker in a crisis area, or other similar reasons.
- 2.5.4. Insurance cover shall not apply to air, ship or rail accidents in reference to the air, ship or rail personnel or other persons involved in the activity concerning the Travel provided that they perform their duties.

3. Exclusions

3.1. No insurance indemnity shall be paid:

- 3.1.1. to persons who have caused an insurance event intentionally;
- 3.1.2. if the damages are caused by the bankruptcy of a travel agency or transport company, strike, or liquidation;
- 3.1.3. if the damage is caused by the activities of public authorities;

7.4.2. In case of the establishment of complete loss of work ability, 100% of the invalidity Sum Insured shall be indemnified.

7.5. The invalidity benefit shall be paid out as a lump-sum reimbursement.

8. Travel Interruption

8.1. Travel Cancellation

8.1.1. Travel cancellation means a situation where a booked and paid for or purchased Travel does not take place.

8.1.2. To receive insurance indemnity, the following shall have happened right before the Travel as the reason of its cancellation:

- a) sudden and acute illness, severe injury or death of the Insured Person;
- b) sudden and acute illness, severe injury or death of the travel companion, with whom the travel had been booked and paid for jointly, or the spouse/partner or the child of the Insured Person;
- c) sudden life-threatening condition or death of the parent, grandparent, sister, brother, mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law of the Insured Person;
- d) damage to the household property of the Insured Person if it is caused by a criminal offense against property, fire, or natural disasters, due to which the presence of the insured is unavoidably necessary.

8.1.3. In case of travel cancellation the expenses arisen from the obligation of the Insured Person towards the travel agency pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Travel shall be indemnified.

8.1.4. Cancellation of a Travel shall also include early return from a Travel due to the Insured Event of travel interruption, if the insured returned from the Travel during the first 24 hours.

8.1.5. Insurance shall not indemnify travel interruption if:

- a) the insurance premium has been paid later than three days before the reason for travel cancellation has become evident;
- b) the reason for the possible cancellation of the Travel including an acute condition of a chronic disease, has become evident before processing the travel document;
- c) the insurance premium has been paid after the events provided in Clause 8.1.2 have occurred.

8.2. Travel Discontinuance

8.2.1. Travel discontinuance is the discontinuance of a Travel already started and returning to the state of permanent residence or continuation of the Travel to reach the travel destination.

8.2.1.1. A Travel shall be deemed to have started as of the moment the Insured Person crosses the border of the state of permanent residence or leaves the state of permanent residence through a border checkpoint.

8.1.2. To receive the insurance indemnity, the reason for Travel discontinuation must be the following that happens during the Travel:

- a) sudden and acute illness, severe injury or death of the Insured Person, their spouse/partner or child;
- b) sudden life-threatening condition or death of the parent, grandparent, sister, brother, mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law of the Insured Person;
- c) damage to the home and/or property at the home of the Insured Person if it is caused by a criminal offense against property, fire, or natural disasters, due to which the presence of the insured is unavoidably necessary.

8.1.3. Upon travel discontinuation, the Insured Person shall be indemnified for additional travel and accommodation expenses which are justified and necessary to return home or to reach the travel destination.

8.1.4. Insurance shall not indemnify for travel discontinuance if:

- a) the insurance premium has been paid later than three days before the reason for possible travel discontinuation has become evident;
- b) the reason for possible travel discontinuation has become evident before processing the travel documents;
- c) the insurance premium has been paid after the occurrence of the events outlined in Clause 8.2.3.

8.2. Being Late for Travel

8.2.1. Being late for Travel is a situation where the Insured Person is late to the start or transit point of the Travel, using regular means of transport. Regular means of transport include any public means of transport that operate according to a certain timetable on a fixed route (except a hydrofoil).

8.2.2. The starting point of a Travel shall be the state border or border checkpoint of the permanent residence, through which the Insured Person leaves the state of permanent residence.

8.2.3. The transit point of a Travel is a port, airport, train station or bus station the Insured Person uses to continue the Travel.

8.2.4. Expenses incurred due to being late to the starting or transit point of the Travel shall be indemnified if the regular means of transport by which the Insured Person intended to travel or travelled to the starting or transit point of the Travel is late due to the following reasons:

- a) getting into a traffic accident;
- b) technical failure of the means of transport;
- c) weather conditions that prevent the means of transport from operating according to the schedule (incl. an ash cloud);
- d) crime and if the ticket reservations of the Travel cannot be changed.

8.2.5. Similarly, expenses incurred due to being late to the starting or transit point of the Travel if the Insured Person gets into a traffic accident with a vehicle they use on their way to the starting or transit point of the Travel shall be indemnified for. The traffic accident must have been duly reported to the police.

8.2.6. The Insurer shall not indemnify for the expenses if:

- a) the Insured Person is late to the starting or transit point of the Travel because of not starting the Travel early enough, considering the Travel schedule and conditions prevailing before starting the Travel (traffic conditions, weather conditions, etc.);
- b) being late is caused by any activities of public authorities;
- c) being late is caused by the poor work of the transport company, computer error or employee's error;
- d) the interval between the arrival at the transit point and the departure of the next means of transport planned by a travel agent does not comply with the minimum period requirement;

8.2.7. In reference to being late, justified additional expenses necessary to start or continue the Travel shall be indemnified for. The following shall be indemnified for:

- a) additional expenses incurred by being late from one means of transport to another;
- b) additional expenses necessary to use alternative means of transport;
- c) additional accommodation costs.

8.2.8. Expenses not subject for refund by Travel agent, transport company, hotel or any other person or authority shall be indemnified for.

8.3. Being Late for Travel due to Theft of Documents

8.3.1. If an identity document of the insured is stolen during a Travel in a foreign country, which makes it impossible to continue the Travel as planned and the stay in the foreign country will be extended until an identity document is issued which makes it possible to continue the Travel, the insured shall be indemnified for additional accommodation and transport costs up to the amount specified in the policy.

- 8.3.2. Maximally one Insured Event of being late for Travel due to theft of documents shall be indemnified for per Period of Insurance.

8.4. Indemnification for Departing Flight Delay

- 8.4.1. If a departing flight is delayed due to its postponement or overbooking thereof for more than 4 hours, any respective indispensable subsistence and accommodation costs shall be indemnified for. Maximally one Insured Event of departing flight delay shall be indemnified for per Period of Insurance.

- 8.4.2. Indemnity shall be paid if the insured submits a written confirmation on the delay of the departure and Travel booking by the airline operator or the Travel agent.

8.5. Change and Exchange of Airline Ticket

- 8.5.1. The exchange of an airline ticket to the same destination caused by changes to the travel agenda due to unexpected and unpredicted reasons shall be indemnified for.

- 8.5.2. The exchange fee of an airline ticket and any rise in the price of new airline tickets caused by the exchange of airline tickets shall be indemnified for up to the sum specified in the policy.

- 8.5.3. Shall be indemnified for if expenses are proven by documents.

9. Measures Applied after Loss Event

- 9.1. The Insurer shall be informed about an Insured Event as soon as possible and the declaration of damage shall be submitted within one month after the end of the Travel. If the Insured Person violates the given obligation, the Insurer shall be released from its performance obligation.

- 9.2. In case of a loss event and to receive the insurance indemnity, the Insured Person is obliged to:

- 9.2.1. consult a doctor as soon as possible in case of an Insured Event of medical treatment expenses. It is allowed to consult any doctor with respective professional qualification and licensed doctor or licensed medical institution;
- 9.2.2. obtain a document confirming a diagnosis from the doctor. The Insured Person is obliged to present the Insurer the medical documents that are of importance to the clarification of the loss event and the indemnity claim; the Insurer has the right to contact respective authorities and persons to check any issues in connection with the treatment;
- 9.2.3. present the Insurer a written declaration of damage which is considered as a claim for insurance indemnity;
- 9.2.4. inform the local police and allow the investigation of the circumstances of the case - provided that it is an offence. The Insurer shall be presented a proof of notifying the police about the offence;
- 9.2.5. obtain a proof from the transport company for the cancellation, discontinuance or delay of the Travel, which includes the time and reason of the event.

- 9.3. If the Insured Person does not fulfil the obligations specified in Clause 9.2 or provides false information that influences the clarification of the circumstances of the loss event, the Insurer may reduce the indemnity or refuse to pay it.

10. Luggage Insurance

- 10.1. Damage resulting from the theft or robbery of the luggage of the insured, or its loss, damage and/or delay to the transfer point or destination caused by a transport company shall be indemnified for. Therewith, the following shall serve as the basis:

- 10.1.1. luggage shall be deemed to include any personal necessities and clothes which the Insured Person carries with them on the Travel;
- 10.1.2. the loss, damage or delay of luggage shall be deemed as an Insured Event if it is not caused by a violation of the diligence obligation or luggage insurance safety requirement by the insured;
- 10.1.3. the delay of the luggage is deemed as an Insured Event if the luggage arrives at the point of destination or transfer of the Travel for more than four (4) hours;
- 10.1.4. the following shall not be deemed as luggage: precious metals and stones (incl. jewellery made from them), artworks, unique and antique objects, collections, easily breakable objects of porcelain, marble, glass and ceramics, means of transport, vehicles and their spare parts, money, bank cards, securities and documents (except passport, personal identification card, and driving licence), souvenirs, manuscripts, photographs, plans, drawings, animals, plants, seeds, medicinal products, musical instruments, glasses (incl. sunglasses), watches, food products, memory and SIM-cards, memory ticks and other data mediums.
