

Credit card travel insurance

Insurance product information document

AB Lietuvos draudimas Estonian branch

The information document provides a general overview of travel insurance provided by SEB credit cards for private clients (MasterCard Premium, MasterCard Platinum, MasterCard Gold and MasterCard World Elite). This is a package product and does not reflect the terms and conditions of the insurance contract that are based on your insurable interest and requirements. The terms and conditions of the contract (including the specific insurance covers, sums insured, indemnity limits and the limitations and exclusions applied to the insurance contract) are specified in other documents, mainly in Premium multi-trip travel insurance terms and conditions and World Elite multi-trip travel insurance terms and conditions.

What is this type of insurance?

Above all, travel insurance covers unexpected and unavoidable medical expenses incurred during travel abroad. The insurance insures a person's health and covers any medical expenses related to the treatment of health damage and injuries sustained in a foreign country. Travel insurance may also include baggage insurance, which insures the personal belongings you take with you, and trip interruption insurance that insures you against expenses related to cancellation and interruption of your trip. This insurance product also includes liability insurance, which covers the damage caused to third persons during the trip.

What is insured?

- ✓ An insured event of medical expenses insurance is sudden acute illness of an insured person or bodily injury and for the treatment of which the insured person needs urgent medical care abroad, or death of the insured. Will be indemnified:

Where am I insured?

- ✓ Territory of validity is the whole world, except the Russian Federation, Belarus and Ukraine. Additional restrictions in terms of territories of validity are specified in the insurance terms and conditions.

What are my obligations?

- The insured person must also follow the safety requirements specified in the insurance contract, e.g.
 - consider the state of their health, surrounding conditions and the usual rules of conduct;
 - ensure that the baggage is sufficiently monitored and use the objects in the baggage according to their purpose;
 - pack their things carefully so that they will not break or damage other things in their luggage, considering regular baggage handling;
 - follow the instructions of their doctor, travel agent, the police, etc.; and
 - follow the appropriate recommendations of the state authorities (e.g. the Health Board's recommendations regarding vaccination, the warnings issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs regarding entry into certain countries etc.);
- Immediately notify the insurer of an insured event and act according to the instructions received;
- Make every effort to minimise the damage and avoid an increase in damage;
- When treatment is needed in Europe, present the European Health Insurance Card to the medical institution or, in its absence, apply for a replacement certificate from the Estonian Health Insurance Fund if the insured person is insured with the Estonian Health Insurance Fund;
- A more detailed list of the insured person's obligations is set out in the insurance terms and conditions.

When and how do I pay?

The insured person is not obliged to pay the insurance premium in the case of travel insurance provided by a credit card.

When does the cover start and end?

Unless the parties to the insurance contract have agreed otherwise, the insurance cover begins upon activation of the credit card and ends on the last day of the validity of the card. The insurance cover is valid for the first 90 days of each trip. The number of trips during the insurance period is not limited. If the credit card expires during the trip, the insurance cover will continue to apply on the condition that a new credit card is activated before the previous card expires.

The cover for trip cancellation begins 72 hours after the credit card is activated. The insurance cover is not interrupted if a new credit card is activated before the previous card expires.

How do I cancel the contract?

The travel insurance contract can be terminated along with the credit card agreement.
